INTERTWINING CULTURES

AlpTextyles is an Interreg Alpine Space project that gathers the rich heritage of Alpine textile ecosystems to create a common ground of knowledge and expertise in research, innovation, and education. The 12 partners from Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Slovenia, and Switzerland join hands to develop collaborative solutions to tackle climate change and optimize the use of local resources. The goal is to accelerate the relocalization of sustainable, circular textile value chains in the Alps, reduce the environmental impact of the industry, and promote greener practices and lifestyles.

Priority 2
Carbon neutral and resource sensitive Alpine region
